Parts Suppliers (2-3-2005)

NOTE: Terry Muncey at Radio Era Archives (#46) has purchased the remaining stock of schematics, manuals and literature from Puett Electronics. Puett is no longer in business.

If you find a telephone number, e-mail address, or web site that does not function properly, please contact Mike at dials@juno.com

Two types of suppliers are listed here. General Parts Suppliers have too many different parts to list individually. It is recommended that you contact each for a catalog. Most have both antique radio and phonograph parts and some provide services too. Specialty Parts Suppliers offer a few items but specialize in a specific area. Cabinet, resilvering, speaker and test equipment repair are listed at the end.
